Professional Development Training Scheduled Sept. 15, Public Schools Closed to Students

ST. THOMAS, USVI – The Territory’s public schools will be closed to students on Wed., Sept. 15 to accommodate professional development training for teachers and other school-based staff.

As the Department of Education continues to adjust to teaching and learning during the coronavirus pandemic, additional training is being provided to teachers and support staff through monthly professional development days.

The “No V.I. Child Goes Hungry” Feeding Initiative will not operate during the closure.

Schools will resume normal operations on Thurs., Sept. 16.
